A pleasant incident of the last meeting was the presentation to Mayor Bragg of a fine crayon portrait of, himself by the members of the City Councll. 'Alderman Collu made the presentation appears and His Honor, responded in a was afterwards tendered the retiring members by the Mayor and President of the Common Council.

The natural interesce would be that the recent political murder in Arkansas would for a 'time, at least, but such 'la not the that the election judges shall be named by that the election judges shall be appointed by a (commission to be created in each conty by the State officials. These officials are, of course, Democratic and can be safely counted upon to fix things so that the Republicans may be still further excluded from supervision of the ballot hox. This is a confession of itself that the election methods will not bear too close scruting. It it were the intention of the Bourbons to deal honestly and fairly with the ballot there could possibly be no occasion for this tinkering with the law. The Legislature at the same time has decided to offer great inducements to immigration, but who wants to reside in a State where men are assessmated for their. political beliefs and the election machinery is arranged to fix results to suit the Bour
